SPIRITUAL DEVELOPMENT III

FROM CHAPTER 7 SPIRITUAL DEVELOPMENT 1

SPIRITUAL HIERARCHY and SPIRIT HELPERS

It seems to make sense to me that there is a spiritual hierarchy that oversees the spiritual evolution of this planet and all who come and inhabit it. I also believe that there are a number of such groups which have different areas of responsibility. One such group is called the White Brotherhood. The white signifies they are aligned with the white light of Spirit. It has nothing to do with race, because there is no such thing as races in the higher worlds.

The Mystical White Brotherhood is a reality. They are infinite in number, and generally invisible to the human eye. They are very high spiritual beings from many planets of the Universe, including planet earth. These highly evolved Beings have superior character, and are extremely wise, expressing divine intelligence beyond our mortal comprehension. They always work together as One. They work mainly from the exalted planes of divine intelligence.

There are many degrees, planes or levels in the White Brotherhood. Just as there are many levels of learning for souls seeking illumination. In the White Brotherhood, there are various levels of advancement on the inner planes of consciousness. As consciousness is expanded, its growth covers unlimited fields of operation that are vast in scope and dimension.

Teachers on one plane of consciousness receive their instructions from those on a higher plane of divine wisdom. The spiral of Ascension goes on and on, into the vastness of eternal light, for there is no end to light and truth.

This Brotherhood also works through humankind, with those who have come to earth to assist in carrying out the divine plan of the Hierarchy. All souls must grow, and those who express a desire to become teachers and to guide others on the earth plane enjoy the opportunity of soul growth. Many of these teachers, or helpers, are in their astral embodiment, awaiting their return to earth to again occupy a physical body.

Your guides are your protectors. They can save you from hazards, predicaments and unhealthy pursuits, if you listen to them. Many times, they have intervened to assist and guide you while you were growing up, perhaps by an intuitive thought here or there to make sure you did not get too far off track from your spiritual nature.

Spiritual beings are as interested in us as we are in them. They're interested in our physical world and in us. They can assist you to direct your creativity, to attract abundance, and to cultivate liberating qualities such as tolerance, humbleness and forgiveness.

Some guides are impersonal disseminators of information. They provide information to anyone that might be listening to their channel or frequency. This is very much the case with inventions that are given to humanity. Inventors intuitively are listening to these channels and can get ideas from this source.

Very few guides are angels. Angels are beings of an exalted order. For the most part, they focus on issues beyond the scope of everyday human concerns. People who incarnate for the purpose of implementing these new angelic projects, very often, do have communication with angels about these adventures. Spirit guides are frequently called guardian angels, but it's more accurate to describe them as helpers, or companions.

Some of the types of guides you might encounter in your lifetime are: Head Spiritual guide, Personal guides, Guides for a day or a particular situation, Guides for traumatic moments, Animal Spirits, Family guides and Master Guides.

Some people think that just because a spirit does not have a body anymore means that it is now very wise. Being Dead doesn't make you enlightened. A person that has permanently left their physical body does have access to their total accumulated wisdom of many lifetimes. Therefore, they could be very wise, or not very wise.

A guide has a certain amount of expertise in certain areas. Just as you would not go to a lawyer to have a tooth pulled, you don't ask a guide for information beyond their scope of knowledge.

There are many Master Guides also referred to as Ascended Masters. Most people will not have direct contact with an Ascended Master unless they are doing specific work in the specialty area of that Master. Ascended Masters rarely channel for the sake of one person. They stimulate individual creativity, but they focus on teaching those who will then go on to teach others. Many times, more often than not, a call to an Ascended Master will bring a response from one of many associates assisting that master who are equally qualified to give advice on the matter at hand. An Ascended Master in a certain situation may choose to take a physical body, either through materialization or by normal birthing. Generally, they would materialize for however long they choose to have material form.

Archangels are magnificent beings with wisdom, and an enormous capacity to love. They are the ones that oversee the workings of Master Guides. They are the Master Guide's guide.

When a person desires to become One with Spirit they can call upon their Highest Spiritual Essence, Ascended Masters and the Angelic Realm to assist them in their journey home.

The following representation of the Spiritual Hierarchy presented here is not intended to represent all aspects of the heavenly world. It could be considered a metaphor by some people in order to have some perspective of the higher nature of the Universe. If the model is useful for your evolution, then use it; if not, then discard it and create what is useful for you.

Definitions Of Positions

Central Sun: A vortex of energy, physical or spiritual, central to systems of the worlds from which it thrusts and gathers unto itself by the magnetism of the central sun. Whether in the microcosm or the macrocosm, the central sun is the principle energy source, vortex, or nexus of energy interchange in atoms, cells, and the human heart, amidst plant life and the core of the earth.

This Great Central Sun is the center of the cosmos--the point of origin of all physical/spiritual creation. The Sun behind the Central Sun is perceived as the Cosmic Christ by whom the formless was endowed with form, and spiritual words were draped with physicality. Each physical sun, including all stars and star systems, seen or unseen, are the physical representation of a Spiritual entity or entities. The God Star, Sirius, is the focus of the Great Central Sun in our sector of the galaxy.

Chohan: Tibetan word for Master, or Lord. Each of the seven rays has a Chohan who focuses the Christ Consciousness of the ray. Each Chohan is an Ascended Master. Maha Chohan means "Great Lord" and is the representative of the Holy Spirit on all rays.

Elohim: One of the Hebrew names of God. Elohim is a uniplural noun, referring to the twin flames of the Godhead that comprise the "Divine Us." Serving directly under the Elohim are the four beings of the elements, "The Four Cosmic Forces," who have dominion over the elements. The Elohim and Cosmic Beings carry the greatest concentration and the highest vibration of light that we can comprehend in our state of evolution. They represent, with the four beings of nature, their consorts, and the elemental builders of form, the Creator Power of God (the blue ray). The seven archangels and their divine complements, the great seraphim, cherubim, and all the angelic beings represent the Love of God and the intensity of the Holy Spirit (the pink ray). The seven Chohans, and all the Ascended Masters together with all the unascended sons and daughters of God, represent the Wisdom of the Law of the Logo (the yellow ray).

Divine Director: Also known as Master R. The Ascended Master whose attainment of Cosmic Consciousness qualifies him to ensoul the flame of divine direction on behalf of the earth's evolution and unfoldment beyond.

Manu: Sanskrit for the progenitor and lawgiver of the evolution of God on earth. The Manus are beloved God parents who respond instantaneously to the call of their children with the comforting presence of their Light. According to esoteric tradition, there are seven primary aggregations of souls, i.e., the first to the seventh root race. Each root race has a Manu and his divine complement, which are ascended twin flames assigned by the Father/Mother God to sponsor and ensoul the Christic image for that root race.

THE SEVEN RAYS AND THEIR USE

When white light passes through a prism, it is separated into its various colors. The seven visible rays represent seven qualities of the white light of God. There are at least five invisible rays which represent additional qualities of God. (Refer to the table on the previous page for the qualities inherent in each color.) These colors have been known to humankind for thousands of years, and have been used as a source of power for one's personal will, as well as for their spiritual qualities.

You Are Responsible For All Of Your Actions. It Is Recommended That You Use Only The Spiritual Aspect Of The Ray And Not The Psychic.

Spiritual Use: To allow whatever is to come forth, that is in the highest and best interest of that person, persons or things. This is the action of the Higher Self, Universe or Cosmos.

Psychic Use: To manipulate or control someone or something according to what you think is right for that person or thing. This is the action of the mind.

Psychic Aspect:

- None, new to the earth plane.

CONTACTING YOUR SPIRITUAL GUIDE

1. Find a comfortable position such as lying on your back with your knees drawn up and your feet flat on the floor. Always adjust your position if it feels uncomfortable. Physical discomforts and distractions will impede your progress and may even prevent making spirit contact. So remember, you must be comfortable.
2. Close your eyes, do the deep breathing exercises and grounding. If you sense a part of your body beginning to shake or vibrate, do not be afraid. These are normal, natural releases of energy blocks. Allow whatever happens to continue, and guide the energy to flow along the spinal cord and out through the top of the head.
3. Now ground again, and ask for your spiritual guide to come forward. This might take some concentrated quiet time. If you wish, phrase the request as an affirmation: "I, (your name), am ready, able, and open to receive my head spiritual guide on the conscious plane.
4. At the moment of making contact, it is very important that you be filled with compassion. Have no expectations about the nature of your guide, and allow them to be themselves not a creation of your ego.
5. Always give a thank-you to your guide for the communication that you had.
6. If you are well advanced spiritually, your Head Spiritual Guide may have been dismissed and you are in direct communication with your Higher Self on spiritual matters.
7. You might ask your highest spiritual nature if you are ready--or have already done so--to release your head spiritual guide and communicate directly with your Higher Self?

8. Highly advanced students will merge their ego and Higher Self into one essence. This student might ask: Has this merging already taken place?
